NEWS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Date: April 27, 2005

Time: 5:00 p.m.

Youth Service Investigators have concluded a through investigation with the arrest of Marc Anthony Gambino (44) of Lafayette, charged with 8-counts Pornography Involving Juveniles. Gambino voluntarily submitted to arrest at the Lafayette Parish Correctional Center this morning. Police were called to 1373 South College Road (Heymann Performing Arts Center), Wednesday, March 30, 2005 in reference Pornography found on a laptop computer. Gambino, a private lighting contractor worked part-time at the Heymann Center during events. He was assigned a computer to conduct his duties at the center. On the above-mentioned day, a technician for Lafayette Consolidated Government serviced Gambino's computer and found the illegal images. A supervisor with LCG was contacted in reference the stated incident and in turn called police to investigate. Investigators executed a warrant of search at the residence of Gambino on Garfield Street, following the initial reported incident. Several pieces of computer equipment were recovered from his home that yields no new evidence. The investigation is now complete and will be forwarded to the DA's Office.
